

ANNUAL

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CHAIRWOMAN

Richland Gives is a phrase frequently heard in Richland County during the month of November. The local capacity building program for nonprofit organizations coincides with the national day of giving held on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving. Since 2015, the community foundation has led this ever-growing community project, which provides general operating support for approximately 85 area nonprofits each year.

During the past two years, nonprofits have endured unprecedented challenges brought on by the pandemic. Many of the participating organizations provide essential services to our most vulnerable populations. The generosity of Richland County residents was on full display this year as over $533,000 was raised. The record setting amount brought the total raised through Richland Gives to almost $2 million.

Richland Gives is just one example of how Richland County residents support one another. It also serves as a reminder that previous board of trustees and staff members developed the trust of donor giving through the community foundation over the past 77 years.

As you flip through the following pages that highlight the generosity of our donors, you will realize that –
Yes, Richland, Truly, Gives.

Foundation President

Richland Gives is designed to encourage people to contribute to local nonprofits they care about through a single giving website. The foundation hosted the day to build capacity, grow philanthropy and make the community stronger. It allows local organizations to raise funds and awareness as well as cultivate new donors and reinvigorate lapsed donors.

The Foundation awarded $100,000 in grants as incentives during the giving event.

ABOUT THE MANSFIELD RISING PROJECT

Branding

A committee worked with Medium Giant to create a brand and message for Mansfield. The Richland Area Chamber and Economic Development and Destination Mansfield – Richland County will begin to use the new brand this year. Other organizations are invited to utilize it as well. The purpose of branding Mansfield and Richland County is to weave a powerful and positive story to raise awareness about why this is a great place to live, play and conduct business. Beyond raising awareness outside the city limits, a brand and positive message could improve the story Mansfield residents recite about their city. It could promote civic pride.

In 2018, Foundation leadership took an unusual track to develop an investment strategy for downtown Mansfield. Instead of hiring a professional consulting firm, it had a citizen-led group create the plan.

The Foundation turned regular citizens into consultants which gives depth and authenticity to the plan. It provides a road map for projects and opportunities for partnerships to continue the renaissance of Mansfield.

The vision is for Mansfield to become an optimal place to conduct business, gather and live. This vision can be achieved through five key areas: effective land use, wayfinding, technical assistance for business, branding and marketing, and safety.

The Guiding Principles of the plan are downtown is everyone's neighborhood, big city amenities with a small-town feel, sustainable change happens incrementally and placemaking is economic development.

To read the plan go to richlandcountyfoundation.org, click "Community Impact" then the "Mansfield Rising" tab.

Upgrade the City's Main Arteries

Mansfield City Council approved a design plan to improve Main Street. Construction should begin in 2024. In 2021 the city converted Diamond Street to two-way traffic. Mulberry Street was converted in 2019. The changes will create a more walkable downtown.

Public Art Project

The City of Mansfield in coordination with the Richland Community Development Group Art Sector created a Public Art Commission to vet projects. Public art projects will be funded by various businesses and organizations with a 50% matching grant from the Richland County Foundation as part of its Mansfield Rising Project. Up to $50,000 in matching funds has been made available to create art in a variety of methods, including traditional painted murals, installed artistic wallscapes, window art, as well as temporary and permanent public art on visible walls and surfaces.

Richland County artists are encouraged to apply to take part in this transformative and revitalizing effort to beautify and create impact in downtown through art.

Free Public Wi-Fi

The Downtown Improvement Board (License Plate Fee Committee) approved funding for free public Wi-Fi from Central Park to the Carrousel District as the first phase. The City of Mansfield IT Department will plan for additional phases. This is the first step towards a Smart City Plan.

Improve the Look of Businesses in Downtown

The Downtown Mansfield, Inc. Facade Improvement Fund received grant funding from the Foundation and Mansfield City Council. The matching grants will be awarded to building owners to make improvements. In 2021 five projects were completed: Voegle Apartments, K.E. McCartney, Dream Huge Realty, Hursh Drug, and Swavory. Another eight projects were approved for grant funding. This will assist economic development and the rehabilitation of historic properties in downtown Mansfield. The funds will be administered by a committee consisting of individuals from the historic preservation commission, architects, designers, and community members to provide guidance and resources on facade improvements. The resources provided in conjunction with the grants will make for quality restorations and renovations consistent with community standards.

Linear Park

The Richland Community Development Group received a $25,000 AARP grant to create a pop-up linear park along West Third Street between Bowman and Mulberry streets. It was installed in September. Various businesses and nonprofit organizations provided programming to engage and attract the public.

NEW FUNDS

Remembering James Brook

James Brook's code of conduct was a simple one: believe in God and trust in God's mercy and blessings. Take care of your family and those who depend on you. Do good where and when you can and have some fun along the way. Treat people with respect and build up, not tear down. Share good times and laughter and don't judge but be welcoming to all. Use your intellect and energy for what is positive and stay away from the negative. Live your life as fully as you can and be happy and grateful.

He passed away last summer. To memorialize Jim, his wife, Beverly, set up a field of interest fund at the Foundation to assist children and adults with developmental disabilities. It was established as the James R. Brook Fund.

He had a special place in his heart for those who were weaker or needed special help which led him to his life's work. Jim taught children with special needs both in the Mansfield City and Clear Fork Valley Schools. Outside the classroom, he was involved in coaching several sports, including football, basketball, track, and golf. For several years he worked with developmentally disabled adults at Richland Newhope. He continued his work with disabled adults at Dale Roy in Ashland, where he was the Director of D-R Services for over 23 years.

After his retirement, he assumed the position of CEO of the D-R Services Board, serving in that capacity until a stroke forced his permanent retirement in November of 2015.

He loved the game of golf and played almost every Saturday morning during golf season with a special group of friends.

A Gift of Grain

A Gift of Grain Fund was established by the Board to accept donations from area farmers, and it provided an initial $15,000 to seed the fund. The Foundation will work in partnership with local farmers to award grants to agriculture nonprofit organizations.

What is Gift of Grain?

Farmers looking to minimize their tax liability and contribute to their community can donate crops to the Richland County Foundation via a local elevator. The producer can select a fund, such as the Gift of Grain Fund, to receive the gift. Grants made from the Gift of Grain Fund go to Richland County agricultural-related nonprofits like FFA and 4H. It is a wonderful way to invest in Richland County.

Why give grain instead of cash?

Donated grain is not recorded as income; you may save all or some of the following taxes: self-employment taxes, federal, state & local income taxes. Available for cash basis farmers only.

You may minimize costly tax deduction phase-outs. Some tax benefits are taken away at higher levels of adjusted gross income (AGI). These benefits are retained when you give grain rather than cash.

You may receive additional tax benefits. IRS rules limit charitable contribution deductions to 50% of your AGI. (The percentage is 10% for C-corporations.) Since the donated grain is not reported as income, by giving grain rather than cash, you can, in effect, give more and save more taxes than those limits allow. This is helpful either if you are especially generous or if you wish to "prepay" your donations in a given year.

The grain you give will not count as income in your government payments limitation caps calculations. If you are a high earning farmer, please contact us for more details. You may be able to effectively redirect significant sums of money from the government to causes you would rather support. Before donating a gift of grain contact your CPA or tax adviser to discuss your personal tax implications.

The Domestic Violence Shelter Diversifies its Funding

The leadership at The Domestic Violence Shelter wants to ensure its financial future. The board approved setting up an agency endowed fund at the Richland County Foundation.

“The endowed fund is part of our strategic plan, and it helps us diversify our funding. It is one more step toward financial security,” said Domestic Violence Shelter CEO Kathy Ezawa.

Ezawa said they receive gifts from donors, fund raisers, and local, state, and federal funding to support the Shelter which can change from year-to-year.

The Shelter is expanding into a building adjacent to its current location. It will add 18 beds and 2,200 square feet which increases the capacity by 70%. Once the renovations are complete, the Shelter will be able to house about 58 people to address an increase in domestic violence in the community.

The building purchase was made possible by several donors including the following funds at the Foundation:

- Robert and Esther Black Family Foundation Fund
- Jennette C. Hartman Fund
- Fred B. and Marian J. Hout Fund
- Katherine L. Parker Fund
- Other donors included the Phillips Family Foundation and S.N. and Ada Ford Foundation.

Ezawa said a miracle occurred when The Shelter found out it qualified for a Community Development Block Grant from Richland County Regional Planning. Due to the pandemic, there were funds available, and the Shelter received a total of $286,000.

The expanded Shelter should be open this year.

The We Above Me Alex Switzer Memorial Fund

According to his family, Alex Switzer was a kind, generous person who loved kids, senior citizens, dogs, and fishing. He died in a car accident in May, he was just 23 years old.

His mother, Melanie Kline-Switzer, and other family members want to remember Alex with a donor-advised fund at the Richland County Foundation to make grants to local nonprofits that he would have wanted to support.

The fund made grants to the Richland County Dog Warden to have a dog undergo obedience training at the Mansfield Correctional Institution. The training takes four to eight weeks, depending on the dog. The dog then will be up for adoption.

The fund also made grants to support 5K races for the Lucas Community Center and Forgotten Felines.

Kline-Switzer named the fund after the “We Above Me” award Alex earned as a member of the Lucas High School Football Team. She said it summed up his personality, putting other people (and the team) first.

Alex was a 2016 graduate of Lucas High School and was employed by Richland Lumber.

Proceeds from a Go-Fund Me account were used to start the fund at the Foundation.

Alex’s family plans future fundraisers to build the fund.

The Rotary Club of Mansfield celebrated its 100th anniversary by setting up a scholarship fund at the Foundation. It is called the Mansfield Rotary Centennial Scholarship Fund.

The scholarship will be awarded to nontraditional students to attend Ohio State University at Mansfield or North Central State College. The fund is designed to help returning Richland County adult students over the age of 25 who want to pursue a certificate or a degree.

“This scholarship could help address local workforce demands,” said Mansfield Rotary President Scott Young.

Both colleges have students with families who enroll in their 20s and 30s. They want to go back to school but the tuition is a financial burden. The scholarship will be paid directly to either OSU-M or NCSC and can be used for tuition, books, fees, or student needs.

Other projects funded by the Rotary Club to observe its anniversary were an old-fashioned street clock in the Carrousel District and a patio and furniture for addiction recovery patients at Catalyst Life Services.

The Rotary Club of Mansfield has three other endowed funds at the Richland County Foundation to ensure a long-term, stable source of funding: the Walter Willis Scholarship Fund, the McGowan Courage Award Fund, and the Rotary Club of Mansfield Tom Doty Community Fund.

Little Buckeye Children’s Museum set up Imagination Stations at many events including the North End Community Improvement Collaborative Farmer’s Market located on Bowman Street.

A New Lexington Scholarship Fund

Lexington Schools recently set up the Lexington Schools – Terry McCammon Scholarship Fund. It will award a scholarship to a graduating male athlete who has attained at least a 3.0-grade point average, earned two varsity letters, has not received a full scholarship, and demonstrated good sportsmanship throughout the year.

Plymouth Area Historical Society Museum Endowment Fund

This is a designated fund for the purpose of providing general support to the Plymouth Area Historical Museum.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

In 2015 the Foundation invested $1.1 million in a transformative five-year plan to address local business retention and expansion, workforce development and entrepreneurship. In 2018 the Foundation Board voted to maintain the amount invested in Richland Community Development Group through 2021.

“This was an opportunity to alter the economic development landscape in our area,” said Foundation President Brady Groves. “We wanted to invest in and partner with existing economic development organizations to encourage a new community development strategy that nurtures greater collaboration.”

“We are not the economic developers. However, while recognizing the valuable work already underway in the community, our Board of Trustees decided to commit financial resources for the development and implementation of a long-term strategic plan,” said Groves.

The strategic plan included:

- The centralization of business retention and expansion and workforce development efforts
- A scale-up program to identify and target services to area companies to address specific challenges and catalyze growth
- The empowerment of existing organizations to promote entrepreneurship and related services across the county

Two positions were created at RCDG; director of business, retention and expansion and workforce development.

Richland County Job and Family Services invested $50,000 the first two years in the workforce development portion of the project. Each year since then, RCJFS has invested $60,000.

In 2021 the Richland County commissioners appropriated $100,000 to the Richland Area Chamber & Economic Development which incorporated RCDG to continue the work that began in 2015.

The North Central Ohio Industrial Museum opened at the Ohio State Reformatory in Mansfield. A long list of donors made gifts to the NCO Industrial Museum including several funds at the Foundation: Katharine Bristor Fund, Robert & Esther Black Family Foundation Fund, the Richard G. & Helen Taylor Fund, and the Charles R. Underhill Fund.

Donor Advised Funds allow the donor the opportunity to make grant suggestions to their favorite charities during their lifetime, and are an attractive alternative to a private foundation, offering the same benefits without the responsibility and cost of administration.

Agency Designated Funds are not endowed funds, so the nonprofit may use the principal of the fund. Like the Agency Endowment funds, these funds support or provide an annual revenue stream for the overall operations of the organization.

Agency Endowed Funds offer nonprofits the opportunity to build an endowment which may support or provide an annual revenue stream for the overall operations of the organization. Organizations not only benefit from this additional revenue but also from the Foundation's financial stability and integrity that assures their donors that gifts will be prudently managed.

Dauphne Maloney has coordinated Camp Broadway at the Renaissance Theatre for over 12 years. With help from volunteers, students enjoy the acting experience.

Cristen Gilbert is a long-time donor to the Connections Fund.

Women's Fund Celebrates 25th Anniversary

The Women's Fund of the Richland County Foundation celebrated its 25th anniversary. The Women's Fund was established in 1996 as a permanent endowment to empower women and girls. The original founders were Linda Smith, Suzanne Davis, Dr. Erin Fain, Catherine Goldman, Carol Goldman, Edith Humphrey, Joanne Humphrey, Carol Payton, Bets Risser, and Suzanne Wilson.

During its grant awards luncheon, the WF awarded $25,000 to Richland County Youth and Family Council for the childcare initiative for a third year. RCYFC has matched the $25,000 each year of the project. In its strategic plan, the Women's Fund is committed to making quality childcare affordable and accessible to all women.

Judy Carter, owner of Ms. Judy's Day Care, received materials and support from the Women's Fund/Richland County Youth and Family Council initiative.

Other grants were award:

- North End Community Improvement Collaborative, Empower Me Mentoring Program
- Altrusa Club, Buddy Bags for homeless students
- Ohio State University at Mansfield, Women and Girls Networking Program
- Mansfield Senior High School, Girls Volleyball Team for a Nutrition Program
- Crossroads City Center, Girl Talk
- Mansfield Area Y, Female Empowerment Self-Protection Class
- Love on a Mission, Fly Your Flag Program

The WF announced the JoAnn Dutton Volunteer Community Service Award. The award was named in honor of JoAnn Dutton, former executive director of the Mansfield YWCA. It celebrates and honors women who devote a significant amount of time and energy in a meaningful way to local charitable organizations.

Linda Smith was given the award. One of her most notable acts of volunteerism was the creation of the Women's Fund. She served on boards at the Foundation, where she was the second woman to serve as chair, the Mansfield Area YMCA, Planned Parenthood, MedCentral Mansfield Hospital Auxiliary, Avita Health System, Park National Bank, and the Malabar Farm Foundation.

Once you have provided for your loved ones and determined your philanthropic goals, a number of giving opportunities are available for your unique situation. You can make charitable gifts to the Richland County Foundation to expand your impact during your lifetime.

BUILD AN IMPACT DURING YOUR LIFETIME

Outright Gift

You can make a gift of cash, stocks, bonds, or marketable assets. Your charitable gift qualifies for the maximum tax advantage available by law.

Charitable Gift Annuities

A Charitable Gift Annuity allows you to make a gift to the community while at the same time providing you with a guaranteed income stream. It is an ideal plan for those who would like to make a significant gift during their lifetime but depend on the income from their assets.

Charitable Remainder Trust

You can place cash or property in a trust that pays an annual income to you (or another named beneficiary) for life. After your death, the remainder of the trust transfers to your community foundation and is placed into a charitable fund you have selected. You receive income tax benefits the year you establish your trust.

Charitable Lead Trust

You can place cash or property into a trust that pays a fixed amount to your community foundation for the number of years you select. Once this period ends, the assets held by the trust are transferred to the beneficiaries you name. In some cases, you receive a substantial reduction in federal gift and estate taxes.

GIVE LATER

You can add to your fund – or even establish new funds – later as a component of your estate planning. Those gifts might include many of the assets described above, plus: IRAs, realized insurance policies, appreciated stock, and income-producing tools like charitable gift annuities.

Your assets will flow directly into the charitable funds you designate.

And, as always, we are happy to collaborate with you and your professional advisor, free of charge to both of you.

Bequest by Will or Trust

When you make plans for a gift to Richland County Foundation through your estate let us know so you can become a member of the Legacy Society. A bequest to Richland County Foundation can be easily made through a simple designation in a will or trust to establish a fund or add to an existing fund. You may also establish a fund in your name that will go into effect after your lifetime.

Charitable Gift IRAs or Retirement Plans

If you plan to make a charitable bequest, a retirement plan is one of the best types of assets to transfer to a charity because it produces taxable income. Most assets that an heir inherits are free from income tax. However, an heir will pay income tax on disbursements from a decedent's retirement plan such as a profit-sharing plan, Section 401(k) plan, or IRA. If you are going to make a charitable request, it is usually better to transfer the taxable assets subject to income tax to a tax-exempt charity — such as Richland County Foundation — and to transfer the non-taxable assets not subject to income tax to heirs.

Charitable Remainder Trust

You can place cash or property in a trust that pays an annual income to you (or another named beneficiary) for life. After your death, the remainder of the trust transfers to your community foundation and is placed into a charitable fund you have selected. You receive income tax benefits the year you establish your trust.

Life Insurance Beneficiary

Life insurance provides an effortless way for you to give a significant gift to charity, with tax benefits that you can enjoy during your lifetime. By naming the Foundation as beneficiary, you retain ownership of the policy and have access to the cash value as well as the right to change the beneficiary. This type of contribution allows you to give to your favorite charity after you die, even if you do not have the liquid assets right now. While you retain ownership of the policy, there is no charitable deduction for the value of the policy when you designate the Foundation as the beneficiary or for subsequent insurance premiums. However, any proceeds payable to the Foundation at your death will not be subject to federal estate taxes.

If you would like to make a transfer from your IRA, make a gift of stocks, bonds, or marketable assets, please contact Vice President of Finance & Operations Bob Barrett at 419-525-3020 or bbarrett@rcfoundation.org

The Legacy Society was established by the Board of Trustees in the year 2000 to recognize individuals during their lifetime who have made plans to leave a gift to this community in partnership with the Richland County Foundation. This gift may be through their estate plans, written in their will, including the Foundation as a future beneficiary of their IRA, insurance policy, remainder trust, or other similar planned gift.

The Richland County Foundation acknowledges the generous people who have planned a legacy to their community through gifts that will eventually come to the Foundation for the benefit of others.
